SUMMARY ACTION MINUTES

I. Call to Order/II. Introductions

Supervisor Miley called the meeting to order at 1:00 p.m. and Committee members introduced themselves.

III. Healthcare Program Manager Welcome

Attachment

Dr. Steven Chen, ALL IN, introduced Karen Ben-Moshe, ALL IN Healthcare Program Manager. Ms. Ben-Moshe will help the work of the Food as Medicine model across Alameda County. She has over 15 years of experience working in public health and policy, most recently as a founding member for the California Health in All Policies Task Force. Ms. Ben-Moshe received her MPH and MPP from the University of California, Berkeley and her BA from Wesleyan University.

Food as Medicine is partnering with clinics on the ground to create programs and incubate work for the Food as Medicine program. Currently Food as Medicine is partnering with Dig Deep Farms as well as behavioral wellness programs create standardized practices throughout the County.

January 27, 2020 is the "go live" date for the Food is Medicine Program at the Tiburcio Vasquez Health Clinic in Ashland. Over 40 staff members at Tiburcio Vasquez Health Clinic have been trained to prescribe "food as medicine" and the food will be provided by Dig Deep Farms; patients will fill food prescriptions at the onsite "farmacy" for their medical conditions.

IV. Complete Count Census 2020 Update

Alessia Simmons, Complete Count Alameda County, presented a PowerPoint presentation on an update of the Complete County Census 2020.

- Census notices will soon be arriving by mail – census to be completed online or by phone by April 30, 2020.
- Alameda County slogan: "Our community COUNTS. Our community BELONGS."
- 72 outreach grantees
- 80 individual volunteers
- 67 organizations incorporating the Census 2020 into their programming
- Outreach framework includes social media communication, training and materials
- Outreach to hard to count populations
• Youth Leadership contest sponsored by the Alameda County Office of Education to support the Census 2020 with cash prizes
• Census jobs available as enumerators paying $25 apply at: https://2020census.gov/jobs

The Social Services Agency will share Complete Count Census 2020 on their website. Complete Count Committee will also reach out to community based organizations to fill census jobs.

V. Expanding into Ashland/Cherryland in partnership with REACH/DSAL

Ryan Thayer, ALL IN, Erik Sakamoto, Executive Director, REACH Ashland Youth Center and Hilary Bass, Senior Program Specialist, Sheriff's Office, presented a PowerPoint presentation on the REACH Youth Food & Economic Security Project in Ashland/Cherryland.

The pilot project intends to expose youth to greater opportunities within the food economy and also continue to build leadership development and leverage existing resources such as Dig Deep Farms Food Hub, Food Enterprise and Youth Leadership programs.

The Dig Deep Farms Pilot Exposure Experience consists of three phases of internship for youth: Phase 1: Exposure to determine interest; Phase 2: Begin specialization exploration and Phase 3: Advanced focus pathway to other industries.

Dig Deep Farms is partnering with BOSS to refer youth to intern at Dig Deep Farms in which they will learn permaculture history and principles, and companion planting.

The exposure is intended to lead youth into a lot of leadership opportunities in the farming field.
